Administratrix Notice

In the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Malheur County. In the matter of the estate of Moses A. Woodruff, deceased. Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been duly appointed by the County Court of the State of Oregon for Malheur County, administratrix of the estate of Moses A. Woodruff, deceased. All persons having claims against the estate of said deceased, are hereby required to present the same to me properly verified, as by law required, at the office of C. McGonagill, in Ontario, Oregon, within six months from the date of this notice. Dated this 15th day of November, 1913. Ella Woodruff, Administratrix of the estate of Moses A. Woodruff, deceased.

BRIEF NEWS OF OREGON

Grade teachers of the Eugene public schools have formed a local branch of the National Grade Teachers' association.

A new gymnasium will be built at the Oregon normal school at Monmouth. Ground has been broken on the project, which will cost $8000, and which will be finished in 60 days.

James J. Hill states that the Hill railroad interests are building and preparing for operating fast steamers to ply between the Columbia river and San Francisco.

Monument has been added to the list of "dry" towns of the state. Election returns show that prohibition won by six votes. Ballots of the women influenced results.

Representative Hawley of Oregon has introduced bills prohibiting lieu land selections in Oregon, except when the base lands surrendered to the government are also in Oregon.

The ruling of the industrial welfare commission that women employed in factories shall not earn less than $8.64 a week or work more than 54 hours in any week became effective Monday.

By freakish antics of nature there has been produced in the orchard of Joseph N. Hunter, at Bend, a combination of Spitzenberg and Jonathan apples, the flavors and colors of the two varieties being separate and distinct in one apple.

A bottle dropped overboard off the Siberian coast by the hydrographic expedition of the Pacific ocean, three years ago, to ascertain the rate and direction of the current, was found at Yaquina bay.

Jackson county court's offer of pay for a section of the Dollarhide toll road, has been accepted by the owner of the road. The section is needed in connection with the construction of the Pacific highway.

Senator Claude McCulloch of Baker has been retained by the corporation department to prosecute actions now pending in Multnomah county for violations of the blue sky law, as well as those in contemplation.

The railroad commission has been advised that the Southern Pacific has granted a reduction in the freight rate on car lots of canned goods from Creswell to Portland from 25 cents per 100 pounds to 17½ cents.

State Game Warden William F. Finley is sending broadcast an appeal asking hunting organizations of the state to donate to the charitable institutions of their vicinities, game for Thanksgiving.

Senator Chamberlain of Oregon has introduced a bill making Milton Wheeler, of Portland, a colonel on the retired list of the United States army, volunteer rank being held by him during the civil war.

Governor West commuted to life imprisonment the sentence of Lem Woon, who had been sentenced to be hanged November 14, for the killing of Lee Tai Hoy in Portland, March 7, 1908. The Chinese said he eventually would be able to prove that he did not kill the man.

The Oregon public ownership league organized temporarily at Portland by the election of John L. Schuylerman as president and J. B. Stillwell as temporary secretary. One of the principal objects of the league is to urge a law establishing a system of voting by mail.

The secretary of agriculture has advised Senator Chamberlain that he will furnish telegraphic crop news to Oregon farmers, beginning the service immediately. The secretary will telegraph his reports to the weather bureau at Portland and that office will print and distribute information to all the daily and weekly papers in Oregon.

Oregon Agricultural College

FARMERS' WEEK

December 8 to 13, 1913.

This will be a notable event in the educational history of Oregon.

Farmers' Co operation will be the leading topic of a stimulating series of lectures. The week will be crowded with discussions and demonstrations in everything that makes for the welfare of the farmer and home maker.

WINTER SHORT COURSE

January 5 to 30, 1914.

The college has spared no effort to make this the most complete short course in its history. A very wide range of courses will be offered in General Agriculture, Horticulture, Animal Husbandry, Dairying, Poultry Keeping, Mechanic Arts, Domestic Science and Art, Commerce, Forestry and Music. Numerous lectures and discussions on Farmers' Co operation at home and abroad, will be a leading feature. Make this a pleasant and profitable winter outing. No tuition. Accommodations reasonable. Reduced rates on all railroads. For further information address,

H. M. TENNANT, Registrar, Corvallis, Oregon.

Farmers' Business Courses by Correspondence without tuition.
